Rules and Regulations of the Event

Article 1:

Admission requirements

Staying on the site implies acceptance of the provisions of the rules and the commitment to comply with them. In order to enter and remain on the site of the event, an entry fee must be paid, which will remain unchanged for the duration of the event. Any person who has paid his or her entry fee thereby declares that he or she has read these rules.

Article 2:

Installation

In order to optimise the site, participants are requested to respect the locations designated by the organisers.

Article 3:

Fees

The registration fees are to be paid at the reception desk and give access to the site. No payment by cheque in euros from foreign countries will be accepted (payment in cash or bank transfer). Pre-registrations will not be taken into account after 15 April 2023. In case of withdrawal, no refund request will be taken into account after 20 April 2023. The organisers reserve the right to refuse registrations if the capacity of the site is exceeded, on the recommendation of the safety commission. For practical reasons, the bar will only operate with tokens sold at the dedicated stations. Cash or cheques will not be accepted. Visitors will be allowed on the site at the times defined by the organisers, after payment of a daily entry fee. Participants and visitors agree to the publication and eventual broadcast of their image as part of the registration for the publicity of the event. Participants, visitors and media professionals may not use images and photographs taken on the meeting site for profit without prior authorisation from the members of the CELTIC DEUCHES office.

Article 4:

Arrival and departure

Opening of the site: from Wednesday 17 May 2023 at 3pm to Sunday 21 May 2023 at 2pm. For technical and safety reasons, the site will not be accessible before its official opening and subject to authorisations issued by the safety commissions. The site will be open to visitors from Thursday 18 May 2023 to Saturday 20 May 2023 from 09:00 am. The organiser reserves the right to open the site, if the safety commission gives the green light, before the official opening time.

Article 5:

Security

Children under the age of 18 are under the full responsibility of their parents or legal guardians, including in the children's area of the venue. Participants are required to respect the road signs and other signs put in place by the organisers.

Article 6:

Animals

Dogs and other animals must not be allowed to roam freely and must be kept on a leash. They must not be left alone, even locked up, in the absence of their master who is responsible for them. Dog waste bags must be provided and used by the owners of the animals.

Article 7:

Vehicles

Each vehicle declared in this meeting and in circulation remains the full responsibility of its driver and/or the holder of the registration card. The vehicle must comply with the obligations laid down by law: insurance, approval by a technical control centre, etc...

Article 8:

Traffic

Inside the site, vehicles must drive at a maximum speed of 10 km/h and respect the highway code. Parking must not hinder traffic, prevent the installation of newcomers or hinder those already installed. The parking bans set up by the organisation must be respected.

Article 9:

Maintenance and appearance of facilities

Everyone is required to respect: the facilities provided, hygiene, the appearance of the site, safety limits, green spaces, plantations, trees, fences and to wear proper clothing. A work area will be made available, it will be forbidden to do any mechanical work outside this area. Any damage will be charged to the person responsible.

Article 10:

Fire and rescue

Fires (wood, charcoal, gas, etc...) will not be allowed on the ground nor will fireworks and firecrackers. Fire extinguishers are at your disposal (refer to the safety plan). In case of fire, please inform the organisers immediately. A first aid post will be permanently present on the site. A refrigerator will be installed to store any medication that may be needed. To benefit from this, you must make a request at the reception desk.

Article 11:

Theft

The organisers will not be responsible for any theft on the site. Each participant is responsible for his or her own property and must report any suspicious behaviour to the organisers.

Article 12:

Display

The present rules of procedure are displayed at the reception desk, at the information point. They can be consulted on the meeting's website. A copy is deposited at the gendarmerie, a second at the PLOUAY town hall, a third at the MORBIHAN sub-prefecture in Lorient.

Article 13:

Infringements

The organisers reserve the right to exclude :

- 1°) Any person who has not respected these internal regulations.
- 2°) Any person with alcohol or substance abuse disorders.
- 3°) Any person selling illicit products or products not authorised by the organisation.
- 4°) Any person disrupting in any way the smooth running of this meeting
- 5°) Any person present on the site who cannot prove that they have paid the registration fee. The organisers decline all responsibility for any breach of these rules. All noise must cease after 11 p.m. (local time), except in the entertainment area, under penalty of punishment. Sirens and flashing lights are not allowed on the site.

Article 14:

Reserves

The organisers reserve the right to cancel the event in the event of unforeseeable circumstances (war, disaster, bad weather, fuel shortage, epidemic, etc.)
